

Tourist information

Everyone is welcome! Also an allusion to the harsh living conditions in the mountains in ancient times.

Our hospitality is as proverbial as our closeness to home. Come and enjoy a hot plate of delicious soup directly at our tourist information. You can find them directly in our unique soup museum. Here you will not only be provided with culinary, but also with all-round information about our community and the region.

You can of course also find out more about our sights and events such as the Arsladerwettruschln here. And if you feel completely at ease, you are welcome to build a house with us.>>> Häuschen bauen.

Native language Erzgebirge

Our dialect is difficult to understand for Uhies'sche ("Unhiesige" = strangers). But maybe you will discover your joy in another foreign language. We have therefore put together a few pieces of information so that you can talk to the Erzgebirge. For example at the dialect tables "Dialect & Music" of the Erzgebirge Association or at the Erzgebirge dialect days.

If you want to hear how we speak here, you can listen to 8-year-old Hans from Schönheide (on Youtube). The MDR recorded all of this as part of its recordings of dialects in Saxony.

By the way, the Erzgebirge word of the year is chosen every autumn. More on Erzgebirgsverein.de
